The Chairman's Foundation Day dinner will be a real culinary treat

SOME of the finest culinary skills to be assembled anywhere in Australia will be in evidence at the Club's Foundation Day Dinner on May 33, which celebrates 139 years of Tattersall's tradition.

The Club's Executive Chef, PAUL CLYNE will head a formidable team of Sydney's best chefs, including GREG DOYLE, well known chef of the Pier Restaurant at Rose Bay, as well as HERVE' BOUTIN (recipient of the "Meilleur Ouvrier"; the highest French culinary order) chocolatier and chef patissier at the Sydney Institute of TAFE.

Members are invited to bring guests, but bookings for this event will be strictly limited, so early bookings are advisable.

Tickets are $100, which will cover a superb five- course menu degustation and wine.

The principal chefs for the Chairman's Foundation Dinner are:

PAUL CLYNE, who has been the Executive Chef of the Tattersall's Club for the past two years. Paul developed his career in some of England's finer establishment, including the Midland Hotel Manchester, Ramada Renaissance Manchester and the Hyatt Carlton Tower London.

He was a member of the inaugural team at the Ramada Renaissance and Radisson Kings Cross before joining the Club

GREG DOYLE, one of Sydney's better known and innovative chefs, from the well known and respected Pier Restaurant at Rose Bay. Formerly owner/chef of the Eastside Bar & Grill in Kings Cross and Pulignys in Neutral Bay.

He is acknowledged as one of Australia's premier chefs and has featured prominently in the Sydney Morning Herald Good Food Guides HERVE BOUTIN, teacher of pastry and chocolatier at the Sydney Institute of TAFE as well as "Le Cordon Bleu" cookery school.

As recipient of the "Meilleur Ouvrier" highest French culinary award, Herve is ranked alongside other great chefs such as PAUL BOCUSE, MICHEL ROUX and JOEL ROBUCHON. He is also considered one of Australia's highest qualified chocolate and pastry chefs.

JOHN WALTHER THOMAS, the newly appointed Food and Beverage Team Leader will be your host for the evening. He is also the national president of the Australian Culinary Federation and has a culinary background that includes the Regent of Sydney, Berowra Waters Inn, the American Club and the Australian Golf Club. Form a party and make your bookings NOW, by calling 9264 6111 and asking for functions.

SNOOKER

Snooker tourney first prize tops $30,000

FOLLOWING a very successful Calcutta dinner (which started on April 10 and finished in the wee small hours of April 11), the first prize for this year's handicap snooker tournament has been set at $30,000. Though that is a not as high as the records achieved in 1994 and 1995, it is slightly up on 1996 and truly a worthy purse for such a prestigious event.

Those at the dinner had a really great evening, and the Snooker Club is extremely grateful to our auctioneer for the evening, PETER BALDWIN, who did a tremendous job and achieved some startling results.

The highest-priced player and favourite for the competition was John Gowran, who was knocked down for $2500, while ADRIAN ABBOTT went for only $50 less after some very spirited bidding.

However, the "smart" money on the night was for new Snooker sub-committee member BRIAN ANTCLIFFE. And thought no quarter is ever asked of or given to committeemen, he fetched a very respectable $2350.

The snooker sub-committee put in a lot of work ensuring this year's tournament is a success, and despite the fact that he has been unable to attend the Club regularly of late, Snooker Patron DOUG JORDAN contributed a great deal, as did members DENIS PIDCOCK, BRIAN ANTCLIFFE and Club professional PADDY MORGAN.

A total of 112 members nominated, and a realignment of handicaps should ensure a very tight competition. In addition to the handicap, the Club will also be conducting the following events throughout the year:

- A handicap billiards tournament;
- The Club snooker championship;
- The Club billiards championship;
- Doubles afternoons: and
- Life pool.

Members interested in obtaining more information about any of these events should contact the Club professional, PADDY MORGAN in the Snooker room.

New members are reminded that they are each entitled to a free lesson from Paddy upon gaining membership. Those who want to take advantage of that offer should contact him direct.

The interclub competition has started, and matches are played of a Wednesday evening. A timetable has been put on the noticeboard, and interested players should contact ANDREW BALD. Our team looks strong again this year, and we are committed to regaining the title we lost last year to the NSW Sports Club.

GOLF

Killara winners strike again at Camden

THE Club's March golf outing to the classic Killara layout drew a bumper field of 28, and while spirits on the eve of the Easter break were high, scores were low.

Winners of the four-ball stableford event were the pairing of JOHN GOWRAN and JOHN FURLONG JUN with 44 points, by one point from BRAD FISHER and SCOTT WILLIAMS.

Scott had a good day, taking out the individual prize with a score of 35 points, one ahead of runner-up JOE KENDALL.

The long drive was won by MARK CLEARY and the nearest the pin by MIKE SAMUEL.

The 21 members who braved the 50km drive to the picturesque Camden Lakeside links on April 22 were rewarded with a beautiful autumn day - and a repeat of the March result, victory again going to the two Johns - Gowran and

EASY WINE FACSIMILE ORDER FORM

Rouge Homme Richardson's White Block Coonawarra Chardonnay 1995

Complex and elegant, this wine epitomises the cool climate varietal character associated with Coonawarra Chardonnay. Premium ripe fruit married with the complexities of barrel fermentation and oak maturation have produced a full-flavoured style with great character. The colour is light straw-green. The bouquet shows attractive melon and citrus-like fruit characters, enhanced by a background of soft, buttery barrel fermentation and sweet nutty oak influence. Price per dozen $143.50.

Hungerford Hill - Cowra Chardonnay 1995

This rich, full flavoured Cowra Chardonnay is an excellent example of contemporary Australian style. The wine has a bright, lemon straw-green colour. The fresh and inviting bouquet shows complex, ripe melon and fig-like varietal and regional fruit characters, enhanced by butter-scotch nuances from barrel fermentation. Price per dozen $160.00.

Rouge Homme, Coonawarra Pinot Noir 1995

This is a complex and stylish wine with wonderful varietal aromas and flavours. The wine has a youthful and intense bright crimson colour. There is abundant lifted and fragrant varietal spice, strawberry and plum fruit on the bouquet with cool climate gamey and leafy characters, enhanced and complexed by charred vanillin oak. Price per dozen $143.50.

Tulloch, Hunter Valley Verdelho 1996

The wine has a youthful, light to medium full green colour. Its lifted bouquet shows aromatic tropical fruit and ripe, fresh melon-like characters, typical of Hunter Valley Verdelho. The medium bodied palate is wonderfully fresh and tangy with soft, attractive fresh citrus and green apple varietal fruit flavours, finishing clean and dry with crisp acidity. Price per dozen $130.00.

Penfolds Barrel Fermented Semillon 1994

The wine had a medium pale straw colour with youthful, vibrant green hues. The bouquet shows well integrated and finely balanced fresh, tropical fruit and light herbaceous Semillon aromas with soft barrel fermentation overtones. An underlying butterscotch complexity derived from barrel fermentation is evident as well as a subtle vanillin oak character. Price per dozen $174.00.

Penfolds, Barossa Valley - Old Vines Shiraz - Grenache-Mourvedre 1993

The wine has a good depth of brick-red colour with crimson hues. The bouquet features youthful, raspberry jam and liquorice fruit characters derived from the Shiraz, Grenache and Mourvedre with a hint of earthiness. These enticing varietal characters and traditional barrel maturation have resulted in some boiled fruit-cake aromatic complexities. Price per dozen $226.00.

Tattersall's Club Collectors 'Mixed' Dozen - $160.00

(two bottles of each of the above wines per case)

Tattersall's Club Members Dozen - $107.00

Tattersall's Chardonnay 1994

Hunter fruit, picked young to ensure optimum flavour and acid with new oak overtones on the nose and a clean crisp finish.

Tattersall's Shiraz 1994

Subdued nose of spicy black pepper with soft tannin and fresh fruit predominate on the palate, with a long and dry lifted acid finish.
